

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 4:47; sunset, 7:05.

Yesterday's heat wave, repulsed by storm, back on job again today.

A. V. Peterson, Evanston, suing for divorce because bride would not live with him at his mother's home till he had means to found their own home.

Mayor approves contract between city and E. W. Bemis, making investigation on which new gas rate ordinance will be based.

County board awarded contract for building \$56,209 stretch of Ballard road,  $3\frac{1}{2}$  miles, Desplaines to Milwaukee av.

Hawkins Holmes, 1627 N. Lawndale av., dying from injuries received in falling out third floor window he was washing.

First suit to condemn land for forest preserve district brought in Superior court. About 1,000 acres in Palatine affected.

Case against Jules Raymond, accused by Dr. F. J. Hobbs of being with his wife in hotel, set for Aug. 10. All from Highland Park.

Del Plummer, barber, Hammond, Ind., suicide. Gas.

Municipal court charge against J. H. McKee, 3343 Polk, charged with stealing $1,049 from Typographical Union, No. 16, dropped when grand jury indicted him.

Nearly 40 boys living in three rooms, delinquent home for boys, 771 Gilpin pl., because city has not finished building work.

Coroner's jury recommends that Thorndale beach be equipped with lifeboats, lifelines and guard.

Wm. Keller, 14, 513e W. 34th, only bruised when he fell in front of Chicago and Joliet interurban car. Car rolled him a piece.

Ethel Corwin, 8, 123 W. Erie, killed by ice wagon.

W. S. Evans, 3401 Lexington av., postoffice clerk, charged with conspiracy in auto thefts, dismissed for testimony against others accused.

Negro robber got $30 from stocking of Mrs. Mary McAllister, 4400 Wentworth av., after finding cash register of her delicatessen shop empty.

Deputy Schuettler orders all evidence against Policemen J. A. Murphy and G. T. Purtell, charged with attempted murder of Chinaman, Chas. Jung, sent to state's att'y.

Lutherans get injunction to stop Rev. E. Bethard, Lemont Methodist Episcopal church, from holding burial services for John Thomelen in Lutheran cemetery.

Mrs. Pattie Price, Memphis, suing Hayes hotel, 6345 University pl., for $2,500, value of property she says was stolen from her room.

Health dep't made mistake, diagnosed slight rash as scarlet fever and family of Wm. Quaiwer, 1619 N. Ashland av., was kept quarantined indoors during all hot spell.

Miss May Davis, 16, 2843 W. Van Buren, handy with her fists, held bailiff's and juvenile court attendants at bay for six minutes when ordered sent to Geneva Home for Girls.

Family of Henry Tow, 4128 N. Hermitage av., faces eviction. Breadwinner a soldier on the border.

Policeman J. F. Healey risked life to stop runaway horse in front of the Board of Trade bldg.

Squall on lake last night overturned many boats. Nine rescued from water.

Police want to know how Mrs. Jos. Miller came to be in gas-filled room, 1436 W. Adams, with feet bound and door locked from outside. Woman still unconscious.

Miss Anna Vosburgh, 5603 Dorchester av., burned. Struck by lightning while in Colorado on vacation. Is public school teacher.

Chief Healey has moved Capt. M. J. Gallery from Desplaines station to W. Chicago av. station and Capt. M. L. Danner from W. Chi. av. to Desplaines.